England

For years English sparkling wine has been regarded as a bit of a joke, so when two home-grown bubblics triumphed in our recent 'Champagne vs English sparkling blind tasting', a few eye-brows were raised. Try the winner – Hambledon Classic Cuvée – to find out if you agree with our judging panel of well-respected wine writers, chefs and sommeliers that the best English Sparklers are now a genuine alternative to Champagne.

WHITE WINE

Chardonnay / The world's greatest whites

Many people claim they “don't like Chardonnay”, but at Noble Rot we think that's a bit like saying you don't like chicken based on KFC, or disliking all music because of Robbie Williams' Greatest Hits. Sure, the poor Chardonnay grape is routinely violated by all manner of un-scrupulous 'winemakers', but in the hands of Burgundy's top vignerons it is transformed into wines of incomparable beauty.

Riesling, Grüner Veltliner & related

100-years-ago German Rieslings were the most expensive wines on the planet. Thankfully they aren't so expensive today, and in many cases represent some of the best 'quality to price' ratios around. Typically featuring aromas of slate, stones, citrus and even petrol, try a laser-focused Grosses Gewächs (German first growth) from a star estate like Weingut Keller or Donnhoff, or a broader, richer style from Alsace or Austria. For the ultimate expression, try a mature vintage of Trimbach's legendary Clos St Hune; Riesling doesn't get any better!

RED WINE

Pinot Noir / The Heartbreak Grape

When it's on form, Burgundy is simply unbeatable. Stimulating the mind as well as the soul, although the complexity of vineyards, producers and culture in Pinot Noir's homeland can warrant serious contemplation, the region is more straightforward than many think. Aromatically less obviously fruit-dominated than many of the excellent Pinot Noirs being made in the New World today, once you have reveled in a top Burgundy's sublime symphony of brambles, berries and damp earth (sound enticing?), nothing else ever quite compares again.

Beaujolais, Blaufrankisch, The Jura and other lighter reds

We've long celebrated the similarities between Austrian Blaufrankisch and Cru Beaujolais as both are juicy and thirst quenching with a genuine affinity for food. We also regularly enjoy drinking Trousseau and Ploussard, light-coloured unique reds from the Jura that perfectly express their alpine-influenced terroir.

Rhone Valley, Rhone Valley inspired and other full bodied reds

Northern Rhone

Whether it's complex, age-worthy wines from Hermitage, Côte-Rôtie and Cornas or intense early drinkers from Crozes-Hermitage and St Joseph, The Northern Rhone is at the top of Noble Rot's personal 'go to' list. In youth these 100% Syrah wines smell of blackberries, black pepper, violets and graphite, whilst with age they often develop an appealing animal gaminess that's up there with the world's finest perfumes. Chanel can only dream about making a fragrance as beguiling as a mature Chave Hermitage.

Languedoc & Roussillon

Noble Rot might never have existed had it not been for our love for the Languedoc's two finest cult domaines: Grange Des Peres and Peyre Rose. These are the kind of soulful southern French reds we love to drink with friends: full bodied, savoury and seasoned with hints of garrigue.

Provence

Californian wine writer and importer Kermit Lynch's seminal book Adventures On The Wine Route is a huge inspiration for Noble Rot Magazine, and no wine is more Kermit than Domaine Tempier Bandol. Made predominantly from the forceful Mourvedre these wines are built to last, their intense southern style aromas melding together gracefully over the passing of time.

Bordeaux / So un-cool it's cool

Bordeaux's uncompromising price increases and corporate affectations have seen it fall out of favour with many drinkers over recent years, but that doesn't change the fact that the Bordelais make a seriously good bottle of wine. 1982 is widely acclaimed as one of the greatest vintages of the decade, whilst 2002 represents top value wines that are now in a great spot for drinking.

Nebbiolo & other Piedmont reds

We visited northern Italy for Rotter's Short Guide to Barolo & Barbaresco in Noble Rot 9, and were blown away by the quality and value of wines on offer. Try a wine from the revered, ultra-traditional Bartolo Mascarello, or one from the excellent new wave of producers like Giovanni Rosso or Luca Roagna.

DESSERT & FORTIFIED WINE

Sweet Bordeaux

With a name like Noble Rot, this list could never be complete without a selection of top dessert wines. Noble Rot aka Botrytis Cinerea is a grey fungus that grows on the skins of grapes causing them to shrivel and de-hydrate, concentrating their sugars and making them perfect for making luscious sweet wines. Our favourites are Château D'Yquem and Château Climens, both decadently rich but mouthwateringly fresh, with the acidity and structure to evolve in the cellar for decades.
